Sales Screen

A hand-drawn sketch of a sales screen interface. It features a large rectangular area on the left with horizontal lines representing a list of items. To the right of this area are two small boxes, one containing '2' and the other containing '+'. Below these is a box labeled 'CART'. Further right is a larger box labeled 'CART' with several horizontal lines inside. At the bottom center is a box labeled 'BUY', and to its right are three horizontal lines.

Login Screen

A hand-drawn sketch of a login screen interface. It features a large rectangular area with a stylized signature 'Tim C' at the top. Below the signature are two horizontal boxes, one labeled 'U' and the other labeled 'P'. At the bottom is a box labeled 'LI'.
